

World Languages & Cultures

Mission Statement

The Department of World Languages & Cultures seeks to facilitate the communication skills, knowledge and appreciation of diverse languages and cultures that are necessary for students to achieve a successful professional career in today's global society.

The Department of World Languages & Cultures prepares students to be linguistically competent and literate in the culture(s) associated with the languages studied and offers introductory to advanced level instruction, as well as major and minor degree programs in diverse languages.

The Department of World Languages & Cultures' BSE degree programs in French and Spanish and the ESL Certificate and Licensure Endorsement programs prepare teacher and instructor candidates of Spanish, French and English as a Second Language with the pedagogical, linguistic, and cultural competency necessary to facilitate second language acquisition to youth and adult learners effectively.

