

Arkansas Discovery Network Scout Patch

Exploring the Frontier: Arkansas 1540–1840

This patch coordinates with the Exploring the Frontier exhibition traveling throughout the state of Arkansas, thanks to the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, to the following locations: Arkansas State University Museum, Museum of Discovery in Little Rock, Mid-America Science Museum in Hot Springs, Arts & Science Center in Pine Bluff, Texarkana Museums System, Arkansas Museum of Natural Resources in Smackover, and the University of Arkansas Center for Math & Science in Fayetteville.

Visit www.ArkansasDiscoveryNetwork.org and go to Arkansas Museum Road Trip Exhibits under the Exhibits tab.

To obtain a patch:

1. Complete the journal accompanying the exhibition.
2. Upon journal completion, ask a museum staff person to sign the bottom of this form. You may keep the journal.
3. Submit this signed form:
 - a. In person at Girl Scout office, 4803 East Johnson Ave., Jonesboro, AR 72401. Patches cost $1.25 ea. Hours: Mon–Thurs; 8:30–5:30 and Fri; 8:30–1:30.
 - b. Or, mail to: Girl Scout office, 4803 East Johnson Ave., Jonesboro, AR 72401. Patches cost $1.25 each plus $2.00 postage and handling (this will cover shipping for a scout troupe).

I certify that _____ completed the frontier journal and may purchase an Exploring the Frontier patch.

Museum staff name

Date